Vancouver, BC: Western Canada's most successful Halloween experience, Fright Nights, is returning to Playland at the PNE October 11th to November 2nd, 2013. This year, Fright Nights is introducing all new dates, hours and prices, making this annual favourite even more accessible to Halloween lovers across the Lower Mainland.

For the first time in its history, Fright Nights will be operating an extra two weekends this year. In exchange it will be closed on what are the more traditionally slower days: The first Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday and the following two Mondays and Tuesdays. This not only allows Fright Nights to run for a longer period of time, but will also pass over savings to guests with decreased ticket prices of $25-$35 at the gate. Guests will also have the option to purchase a Fast Pass, which offers the same access as a regular gate pass PLUS access to an expedited line for each Haunted House.

Guests will get to face their fears with the popular haunted houses: FEAR, Car-n-Evil, Hollywood Horrors, Asylum, Darkness and Haunted Mansion. In addition to these six haunted houses, Fright Nights is bringing back its most popular entertainment group. The Monsters of Schlock, the world's craziest two-man comedy circus show, returns to Fright Nights to perform an amazing stunt show influenced by the early days of Vaudeville, the 3 Stooges and the carnivals of yore.#

Owned by the City of Vancouver, the Pacific National Exhibition (PNE) is a healthy and vibrant non-profit charity organization dedicated to providing over 3 million visitors a year with first-class cultural, sporting and family entertainment events. Founded in 1910, the PNE operates from a 114-acre site at Hastings Park, a multi-facility venue in Vancouver where the organization operates four activity streams: an annual 17-day Fair, Playland Amusement Park, maintenance and care of the Hastings Park site and management of the site's year-round facilities. These facilities are utilized to celebrate a variety of hockey, amateur sporting, music, and community, social, cultural and commercial events throughout the year.
